

All complaints, in the prescribed proforma, regarding the provisional Answer Keys of OMR tests, published by the Commission, should reach the office within 15 days of publication of the answer keys. The final Answer keys shall be published after the scrutiny of all the complaints received within the stipulated time in the prescribed proforma. Complaints received after the publication of final answer keys will not be entertained.